First Sunday after Pentecost:
Trinity Sunday

News for our Community

Good afternoon my friends!

I apologize for this being sent a day late. I had to be in Seattle all day yesterday, so Friday ends up being my Thursday.

Well, last Sunday ended up being a wonderful surprise! I was figuring that we'd have our first Sunday outside, our second inside, and our third be the GRAND RE-OPENING, but God's weather had other plans. This Sunday will be our GRAND RE-OPENING, and all of you will have a part to play at the beginning of the service. So the Process? Get checked in, get your name tag, and go into the sanctuary. At 10:00 I'll move us all outside where we will have a special, and I guarantee fun liturgy of reopening.

Come early enough to do all your paper work, if you didn't last week. I did see some discrepancies between sign ins, vaccination status and name tags, so make sure we have all that. For the time being we will be checking people in every week, it's just part of potential contact tracing if need be.

1. PER our Bishop, and the decision of the Vestry: for the safety of all we will continue to wear masks at least until EVERYONE has the opportunity to be vaccinated, including our youngest ones. A month or so after that can happen, we will move into the phase of being maskless. But in the mean time as we open... wear your most colorful, comfortable and practical masks every Sunday.
2. PLEASE COME EARLY BECAUSE YOU'LL NEED TO SIGN PAPERWORK BEFORE WE START OUR SERVICE. Also, if I might suggest, download your bulletin ahead of time if you will be reading on an iPad or Kindle. There will be a few bulletins like last week, but starting this week we will move back into projection. If you find you can't see the projection, download the bulletin onto your Pad or Phone. BIG HUGS TO YOU ALL!!! And I'm soooo excited that we are back together!!!

Our book group is starting a new book on Monday May 24 at 6:30 pm. We have found a new way of sharing, we read the book outloud together. Sally Snyder has used this style for years in another book group, we tried it and like it. The new book is: The Book of Forgiving: The Fourfold Path for Healing Ourselves and Our World by Desmond Tutu and his daughter Mpho Tutu.

Please join us. All are invited.

Katherine Adams is inviting you to a scheduled Zoom meeting.

A special message from the Lord's Neighborhood Diner:

We need volunteers!! The Lord's Neighborhood Diner is supporting the Salvation Army by preparing dinner every Friday between 2 and 5:30 pm. It is a safe environment, and you can park behind the Salvation Army for free. Temperatures are checked at the door, everyone wears masks, and gloves are provided in the kitchen. We prepare 60-70 dinners and put our delicious cuisine in containers that the Salvation Army staff distribute to the hungry folks. You will only be working in the kitchen and not have direct contact with the diners.

Thank you to past volunteers Sue Ahrens, Jim Manlove, and Tara Chambless. We continue to need ongoing help. Please let me know if you are available one of these upcoming Fridays:
May 28

Thank you and stay safe!

Blessings,

Jackie King

Are local elections really important?
(Trick question. The answer is: Yes!)
The people who win local elections impact your life more immediately than anyone else you vote for.

Save the Date!

Our next virtual meeting is Wednesday, June 2nd, at 7:00 p.m.

Join Resist 45 Bremerton and two guest speakers, Nina Moussavi (Indivisible's Organizing Manager for WA, CA, & WV) and Kevin Jones (Indivisible Vashon) to discuss why these elections are so important; where we want to direct our attention during the elections; and specific actions we can take to make a difference here at home!

Lots of fun stuff happening at the Bremerton Backpack Brigade as the school year winds down.

A summer food distribution project is in the mix! More details to come.

Don't miss one (or two) of the few remaining opportunities this school year to get together and have fun while we're feeding hungry kids.

You make a difference!

What's new with the Bremerton Backpack Brigade? Read the newsletter to find out.
