NOTES FROM YOUR RECTOR

As we all know life can change in a moment! Wednesday night after being outside with the puppies, I ended up stumbling on our concrete back steps while heading inside, I fell, landing on my right side, specifically on my right arm, fracturing it.

After a few hours in urgent care I have a splint immobilizing my arm. I'm typing with one hand, and I'm not sure about how to manage Sunday's service, though I trust together we will do it together. Please keep me a sinner, in your prayers.

Trinity Sunday, we are preparing both the finest music and excellent preaching with only the best of all the heresies on the subject! Please know that I say this, because none of us human beings can ever truly know the truth of the Trinity, even though we try all the time.

I want to call out a big THANK YOU to all of you who helped with preparations in our parish hall: Marty and Harold Stennett, Tara Chambless and her husband Tom, Eric Harrold, Eric Smiley and others (please forgive me if I forgot anyone). Thank you for your hard work, the results were FANTASTIC!

According to our heavy social calendar, this Sunday there will be Coffee Hour following the service.

Please put the Bridge Blast that will be held in Bremerton on June 25th on your calendars. We hope that we can have a "Blast" with a potluck, games, and a time of enjoying the great view from the Oliver room.

The Bishop will be coming to St. Paul's December 4th. If you'd like to be confirmed, received into the church, or would like to renew your faith, that will be a fun day to do that with us. Put this on your calendar as well as a parish celebration.

God bless you my friends, as we move into our new future together.

Lost and Found

We are starting to accrue a collection of items left behind, either from our congregation or from one of the outside groups that meet here. Even if you are not sure that you are missing something, please check the box and coat rack in the Narthex in case something of yours is waiting to be claimed.

ACOLYTE TRAINING: June 11 at 10:00 am

Have you felt a calling to do something special in the Lord's service since we have left the Covid Catacombs and returned to our lovely Nave? Perhaps you would like to serve at the altar as an acolyte and assist our priests as they lead us in the Eucharist?

As an acolyte for 47 years, I can testify what a blessing it is to serve at the Lord's altar. Anyone can be an acolyte from second graders big enough to carry a candle (remember an acolyte is as light bearer) to an septuagenarian who can carry the Processional Cross. Being an acolyte is spiritually uplifting, and you get to dress in cool outfits, ring bells, and fetch and carry neat stuff for our priests.

There will be an "Introduction to Acolyting" class in the Nave on Saturday, May 28th at 10:00 AM. It will be informative and fun. This will also count as training for our new Licensed Eucharistic Ministers.

This is a "Save the Date" notice. More information will be forthcoming.

COFFEE HOUR

I'm hearing from everyone how much they LOVE having coffee hour again!

So here is our new plan for our coffee drinking, and time to socialize on Sunday's after church:

1st Sunday - Pancake Breakfast in PH

2nd - Coffee hour in the Oliver room

3rd - Denny's or Family Pancake

4th - Coffee hour in the Oliver Room and if there's a 5th Sunday it will be coffee hour. We hope that this will allow our volunteers to be spaced in such a way as to not be overwhelmed, AND a chance for us to rebuild those relationships challenged by the last couple of years. Also, on those restaurant

Sundays, perhaps we can get into the habit of taking newcomers to breakfast on our dollar!

We look forward to others who will step forward to becoming involved.

The Book Group Of St. Paul's meets every Monday evening at 6:30 pm via Zoom.

The St. Paul's Book Group has selected Waking Up White: And Finding Myself in the Story of Race by Debbie Irving for our new book to read starting Monday, December 13.

This book is part of the Episcopal Church Sacred Ground curriculum and is being read by our Vestry. It is a book for us to discuss "White Privilege." A book written from the author's personal journey as a privileged white person in the U.S. learning about the racial divide.

The book group feels that by reading the book aloud each week, we will be able to focus on the journey of racial reconciliation, take time to discuss the chapter questions, and learn from each other. Come and join us; books can be purchased, checked out at the library, or you can just listen. When was the last time you listened to a whole book being read by friends?

Peace to You,
Call if you have questions or just join in.

Bremerton Backpack Brigade

Serving the first needs of the child, so that they may learn

Attached is the June Brigade newsletter. There's never enough room to share just how much all the support that the Brigade receives from you means to us. You make a difference in the lives of hungry children in so many ways. Without your willing hearts and hands, without your prayers and good vibes, without your generosity -- there would be no Brigade.

Thank you my friends,

Myra

St. Paul's Serves at SALLY'S

We need volunteers!

St. Paul's is now supporting the Salvation Army (aka SALLY) by preparing dinner on the second Saturday of every month from 2:30-5:30 pm. It's a safe environment, and you can park in the lot behind the Salvation Army for free. Temperatures are checked at the door, everyone wears masks, and gloves are provided in the kitchen. We prepare 50-80 dinners and put our delicious cuisine on trays that we distribute to the hungry folks through a window in the kitchen. It is fun, safe, and secure.

Please let me know if you are available to work on: Saturday, June 11.

Hebrews 6:10

"God is not unjust; he will not forget your work and the love you have shown him as you have helped his people and continue to help them."

Thank you to all those who have previously volunteered.

Blessings,

Jackie King
